

WATTS TOWNSHIP, May 5, 2010

The Watts Township Board of Supervisors met in regular session at the Watts Buffalo Community Center at 6:30 PM. Present were Karl Raudensky, Charlie Loudon, Pat Gutheil, and Wendy Brunner and several residents.

The minutes of the April meeting was read and approved. Loudon/Gutheil

Good and Welfare:

Frank Poust asked for clarification on how the Board was responding to DEP request of an update of the 537 Plan. The Board will tell DEP we are preparing an RFQ. He also wanted to know if all plan fees have been paid. Secretary will email him that information. Poust asked if a bill had been sent to Jorich for costs associated with the Rivermist rezoning request.

Zoning Officer:

Engineer:

Engineer Spease submitted the Speed Limit Study Report to the Board and to Solicitor Fenicle for review. He will also provide a legal description for Buffalo Road in the attempt to close that road.

Solicitor:

Solicitor Fenicle reports that the Rudy case has been continued to August, 2010.

Fire Company:

Old Business:

A reminder was given that the Watts Township Spring Clean-up will be held May 22 at the Community Center.

New Business:

The Act 537 bid packets are being created. DEP has requested an update within 30 days from the Board on the status of the required 537 Plan.

The bid opening for the summer paving is scheduled for June 2, 2010 at 6:30 PM.

Resolution #2010-3, by Gutheil/Louden, declares that the Board authorizes the secretary to submit all required forms and documents for the purpose of obtaining financial assistance for the February snow events. All in favor.

The secretary reports that the audit is complete and there are no findings.

Roadmaster:

Routine maintenance is being performed.
